Chapter One

1. The book of Genesis covers a time span of about _____ years. The word “Genesis” means “_____,” “source,” or “beginning.” Genesis gives the origins of the _____ of the universe, _____, and the first _____ on earth. It not only describes the beginning of human life but outlines God’s _____ through Jesus. The promised _____ of Genesis 3:15 is the theme of the book. This promised _____ is mentioned again in Genesis 12:1-4; 22:18; and 49:10. This promised _____ is identified as _____ in Galatians 3:8 and 16.
2. Genesis 1 covers God’s work of _____ (1:1-31).
3. The book opens with _____ declaring, “In the _____ God created the _____ and the _____.” When God (Elohim) is used in many Scriptures, it is not referring to one person but three: God the _____, God the _____, and God the _____. They were involved in the creation of the universe (cf. Gen. 1:26; Job 26:13; Psa. 104:30; Jo. 1:1-3, 14-15, 26-30; Col. 1:13-20; Heb. 1:1-2, 10 and other passages).
4. Moses tells us how God created the “_____ and the _____.” God did so simply by saying, “Let there be _____,” and there was light. “Heavens” does not refer to God’s dwelling place, but two other places: (1) the space where the _____ and the _____ are, and (2) the outer space is where the _____, _____, _____, and other _____ dwell (2 Cor. 12:2).
5. The Godhead simply spoke, and things came into existence; it was a collaborated effort on the part of all _____. When I used the pronoun “He,” most of the times, I will be referring to the three of the _____.
6. The question is often asked, “What did God create the universe from?” The answer is “_____.” God took “_____” and created the universe. Only God can do this. The Hebrew writer declares this in Hebrews 11:3, by saying, “By _____ we understand that the worlds were framed by the _____ of God, so that the things which are _____ were not made of things which are _____.”

7. The Bible declares that God _____ created the “heavens and the earth” (Isa. 45:18), and He did so without _____ (Job. 26:7).

8. There are those who falsely teach the “_____” theory – that is, a gap of _____ of years occurred between Genesis 1:1 and Genesis 1:2. The Bible does not mention a “_____” period of billions of years. The heavens and the earth were created on _____ consecutive days consisting of each day being _____ hours.

9. The false doctrine of _____ is NOT supported by the Bible; the heavens and earth are not the result of a great _____ that occurred, and the universe and mankind _____ over billions of years.

10. The false doctrine of evolution was made popular by _____; again, the Bible firmly confirms that _____ is the _____ of the beginning of the universe (Neh. 9:6; Psa. 19:1; 24:1-2; 33:6-9; 89:11; 90:2; 95:5; 104:5-9, 24-28; 148:5; Prov. 3:19; Isa. 40: 21, 26; 42:5; 45:18; Jer. 32:17; 51:15; 1 Jo. 1:1-3; Acts 14:15; 2 Cor. 4:6 Heb. 1:10; 2 Pet. 3:5).

11. On each day, God created the following:

- Day 1 – _____ and the _____ and spoke _____ into existence.
- Day 2 – God created the _____; the sky formed a barrier between water upon the earth and the moisture in the air. At this point the earth has an _____.
- Day 3 – God created _____; continents and islands rose above the water. The larger bodies of water were named _____ and _____, and the ground is named “_____” (earth). The earth began to take form now as God created life in the form of grass, herbs, and trees with the capability to _____.
- Day 4 – God created all the _____ and heavenly _____; the movement of these will help track _____. Two great heavenly bodies were made in relation to the earth. The first was the _____, which is the primary source of light, and the _____, which reflects the light of the sun. The movement of these bodies will distinguish _____ from _____.
- Day 5 – God created all life that lives in the _____; God also made all the _____.

- Day 6 – God created all the creatures that live on _____; this included every type of creature not included on previous day – God created _____ and _____ – God made man and woman in their _____, that is, having both _____ and _____ (Col. 3:10).
- Day 7 – God _____; this in no way indicates that He was _____; it denotes that the creation was _____.

12. The Bible affirms that everything God made was “_____ or very _____” (cf. 4, 10, 12, 18, 21, 25, 31); God blessed man by giving him _____ (ruler or authority) over all animals and the earth in general.

13. It’s most likely that humans were _____ (v. 29) until after the flood when God gave them _____ to eat (Gen. 9:3).

Chapter Two

1. On the _____ day (Sabbath), God ceased from creating the universe and He _____. The Sabbath day will not become a religious day until the giving of the _____.

2. According to verse 3, God blessed the seventh day and _____ it; God instructed Moses in Exodus 20:8 to tell the children of Israel to “Remember the Sabbath day, to keep it _____.”

3. In verses 4-17, God gave Adam a home in the garden of _____ along with His _____. In the book of Genesis, Moses will record the _____ (generations) of the creation of the heavens and of the earth.

4. Up to this point, the plants did exist, but it had not _____ yet. Rain began to fall later in the form of a _____ over the earth.

5. Moses, in verse 7, tells us that man was created from the _____, and God “breathed into his _____ the breath of life; and man became a _____ being” (living soul).

6. The garden of Eden was given to man to dwell, and it was filled with _____ and _____ to provide food; in the garden, there were two specific trees named: (1) “the tree of _____” and (2) “the tree of _____ of good and evil.”

7. The location of these trees were given, that is, in the _____ direction of the garden; a river came out of Eden to water the trees and flowed into _____ separate rivers. Two of these rivers are known (the Euphrates and Hiddekel (Tigris) - Dan. 10:4), and two of the river's location is unknown (Pison and Gihon).

8. Man was put into the garden of Eden to _____ it and to _____ it (v. 15). He was then given instructions by God as to what was expected of him in the garden - God gave His _____. Man was to not eat "of the tree of the _____ of good and evil." The consequences for eating of this tree would be a _____ of God's law and would result in _____ (both physically and spiritually).

9. In verses 18-25, God creates _____ for man; earlier when God made both male and female on the sixth day (Gen. 1:27), He was referring to _____. All the animals had a _____ except man.

10. God says in verse 18, "It is not good that man should be _____; I will make him a _____ comparable to him." The King James Version uses the phrase " _____ " rather than "helper comparable to him." Woman was to _____ man; they were to work _____ as a couple to dress and keep the garden.

11. Man was to have _____ over the woman, just as he was given _____ over the animals; he _____ the animals as well as the woman. In the beginning God's plan was for man to be the _____ (head) in the marriage and the home and it's still true today (cf. Eph. 5:21).

12. In verse 24, Moses gives God's ingredients for the _____ of a marriage: (1) between a _____ and _____, (2) "a man shall leave his _____ and _____," and (3) the man and the woman becomes " _____." By becoming " _____ " no provision was made for the _____ of a marriage.

13. Jesus later in Matthew 19:4-6 will _____ these principles for a marriage with _____ except. He provides a _____ for the termination of a marriage when _____ (fornication) is committed.

14. Both man and woman were _____ at this time, because their eyes had not been opened to _____.
